

part of that increase, he raised the Federal gas tax 30 percent to pay for social programs and Washington bureaucracy.

This is the first time the gas tax had been raised to pay for these kinds of programs. It was to help improve our Nation's highways and mass transit systems, instead, President Clinton used it to finance his massive, ineffective, status quo social bureaucracy.

This is not only bad policy, it is wrong! While Republicans are fighting to lift the oppressive tax burden from America's shoulders, President Clinton and his congressional Democrats are adding to the weight. Yesterday, Republicans in the Senate tried to repeal the gas tax, but Democrats blocked their attempt. This is just another example of the Democrat attempt to protect their wasteful status quo social programs by bleeding the American people dry. Mr. Speaker, this must stop and we must start by repealing the gas tax.

BRAVO, MRS. WARD

(Mr. TRAFICANT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TRAFICANT. Mr. Speaker, the IRS said Carol Ward of Colorado Springs was a cheat, a liar, a thief, and a big drug dealer. The IRS then posted those accusations on flyers and spread them around all over town. The IRS then seized her business, her son's business, and all her money.

But at trial Carol Ward was found to be innocent. Mr. Speaker, Carol Ward is now suing the IRS for $1 billion, $1,000 for each of those 1 million people that saw those fliers. Bravo, Mrs. Ward. And as far as the IRS is concerned, I hope Mrs. Ward kicks their assets all over Colorado.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back all the liability the IRS has in this case.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair will remind all persons in the gallery that they are guests of the House and may not manifest any approval or disapproval of proceedings. It is a violation of the rules of the House.

INTRODUCING THE WORKING AMERICANS WAGE RESTORATION ACT

(Mr. NETHERCUTT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. NETHERCUTT. Mr. Speaker, we have heard many stories in this House over the past few weeks about the stagnation of wages and that America needs a raise. Last night I heard one of my colleagues on the other side of the aisle lament that real wages have declined 16 percent over the last 20 years.

Mr. Speaker, I agree that American workers need to take home more of their earnings to their families. Today I will introduce legislation to enable every worker to deduct on their income tax the money that they contribute to Social Security every payday. My bill, the Working Americans Wage Restoration Act, will increase the take-home pay of the average two-earner family by $1,770 per year.

While it does not affect the receipts of the Social Security trust funds in any way, this legislation will eliminate the unfairness to workers who must now pay tax on the 6.2-percent of their income that they contribute to Social Security.

I urge my colleagues on both sides of the aisle to support this legislation, which will give a much-needed boost to the hard working men and women of our Nation.

SAME OLD STORY

(Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I simply would like to tell my colleagues the story of ages past. Speaker GINGRICH: "I would like to see Medicare wither on the vine." The majority leader in the Senate: "I was there fighting, 1 of 12 to vote against Medicare in 1965."

Now they have a new budget and the budget is the same old song, the same old story. What they want to do is to force hospitals to close by cutting Medicare. They want to make sure that our children who need preventive health care do not have it, and they are looking to close the nursing homes where many of our parents who worked so hard during their lives now need to have this care, the loving care that these homes provide, because of the cuts in Medicaid.

And, yes, what about Mrs. Jones, 74 years old? She has been going to the same physician for all of her life. Now the Republicans say, "You cannot do that, Mrs. Jones. You are going into managed care." A prison, which will not allow our seniors choice for their medical care. What do we say now to Mrs. Jones?

Same old song. Cutting Medicare and cutting Medicaid. Giving the money to the wealthy. What do we hear from the Republicans? Anything new? No, the same old story, verse, and song.

WHO DROVE UP THE PRICE OF GASOLINE?

(Mr. STEARNS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. STEARNS. Mr. Speaker, the question today is who drove up the price of gasoline. In May 1993 the Federal gasoline tax was raised 18.3 cents a gallon. That vote marked the third time in just over a decade that Congress increased the tax.

□ 1015

Since December 1982, the Federal levy on gasoline has exploded 357 percent, even as the price of gasoline has trended steadily downward. Mr. Speaker, inventories were down because of the unusually long winter, a fire in California closed a Shell oil refinery, and Saddam Hussein's stubbornness in keeping 500,000 barrels a day of Iraqi crude oil have caused the price to go up.

But who in fact drove the price of gasoline up? I submit that Congress under Democrat control did by raising the gasoline tax. It is pretty clear who the people in collusion are. It is the people here in the Federal Government. The Federal gasoline tax was hiked in 1983. It has been hiked ever since, and we need to understand that the Democrat-controlled Congress is at fault.

SAME OLD BUDGET

(Mr. DOGGETT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DOGGETT. Mr. Speaker, the gentlewoman from Texas is right. It is the same old song. As the Four Tops would say, "It's a different verse since you've been gone." That is what this budget is. The Republicans have come back, and they have taken their old last year's budget. What it did to seniors, what it did to schoolchildren, and they put a smiley face on it. But it is the same old bad budget.

Mr. Speaker, for months they have tried to undermine the Federal commitment to education. On Sunday, the majority leader of the Republican Party even suggested that we compensate for a revenue loss by cutting education. It is as if Marie Antoinette were telling the peasants let them eat cake, but he says to students in America, let them pump gas.

We need more opportunities in this country, not less. Is it any wonder that a Republican Party that cannot seem to learn its own lessons wants everyone else in America to pay more for learning.

THE GAS TAX

(Mr. FUNDERBURK asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. FUNDERBURK. Mr. Speaker, when Bill Clinton ran for President he said "I feel your pain." You know, he has a way with appearing emphatic and compassionate. But now, 3 years into his Presidency, Bill Clinton is now the source of a lot of pain that the American people feel.

In 1993, he and the liberals here in Congress, enacted the largest tax increase in history. Part of that tax increase was the 30-percent increase in the Federal gas tax. Every gallon that
